

any one else can expose. We have already made public the worst that can be told.

Wilson's Witly Speech.

Following Mr. Morton, Vice-President Wilson was introduced to the agents, and his ready wit, shown in a most happy introduction, won for him the hearty applause of the gathered agents.

In his own humorous style, Mr. Wilson told of the restrictions of the New York State laws which prohibit the Equitable from writing more than $100,000,000 of policies a year. "Why, with that limit," he exclaimed, "the society will soon become an exclusive social club, with a waiting list of policy-holders and agents."

Continuing in more serious vein, Mr. Wilson told of the benefits of life insurance and painted a fine picture of the company which has paid out in death benefits over $2,000,000,000, and for annuities over $425,000,000. "No philanthropic beneficence the world has seen has ever distributed such princely sums among the poor, the bereaved, the troubled and the needy. The work of soliciting insurance was extolled by the speaker, "not only for your own profit," explained Mr. Wilson, "for the company, but for the sake of the man to whom you are doing a real service in inducing him to take a policy on his life."

Major Myers, of Norfolk; Mr. William A. Danner, and others, made short speeches, after which President Morton and Vice-President Wilson were taken to the Governor's Mansion, where a few representative business men of Richmond were invited to meet them. Among those present at the lunch were Paul Morton, George T. Wilson, W. A. Danner, Dr. A. L. Wellford, Major A. Myers, J. A. Hawes, Oliver Timberlake, J. W. Jeter, J. A. Kendler, P. P. Thornton, Dr. M. R. Beecher, R. C. Shaw, G. W. Hodgson, H. H. Kasprovier, W. E. Duncanson, C. A. Ford, T. C. Valentine, R. R. Richardson, Ivey D. Carter, C. C. Rowlett, Frank Crews, J. H. Moore, Jr.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING.

Virginia Division Will Meet at Monumental Church on Tuesday.

The eleventh local assembly of the Daughters of the King, Virginia Division, will meet in Monumental Church, Richmond, on Tuesday, May 28th. The sessions will open with morning service, Holy Communion and choir hour at 10 A. M., conducted by the Rev. John Moncreuf, D. D.

A business session and conference will follow at 11 A. M. Evening prayer and sermon will be held at 8 P. M. with addresses by Rev. L. R. Mason, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, and Rev. W. D. Powers, D. D., rector of St. Paul's Church, Flint, Mich.

The clergy of the city and those interested in devotionals will be asked to attend the sessions of the assembly.

ALDEN BELL NOMINATED.

Present Mayor of Culpeper Will Come to Legislature.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CULPEPER, VA., May 25.—The election in this county today passed off quietly, though there was considerable excitement throughout the county. Alden Bell, Mayor of Culpeper, is overwhelmingly elected to the Legislature over his opponent, Mr. A. Slaughter, the present member of the General Assembly.

Mr. Russell Smith, the present county treasurer, is re-elected over Mr. Edgar Willis by at least five hundred majority. Mr. James Yowell is elected as sheriff of the county over the incumbent, Mr. A. W. Pulliam, by at least three hundred and fifty majority.

There was a complete landslide for the above successful candidates.

ORANGE OFFICERS.

Result of Primary Election Nominating County Officers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ORANGE, VA., May 25.—The primary election held here today for county officers resulted as follows:

For Commonwealth's Attorney—A. T. Browning, majority of 235 over John G. Williams, incumbent.

For the Legislature—C. C. Tallaferro, 11 majority over H. T. Holladay, Jr.

For Sheriff—Lee Pannell, incumbent, 201 majority over W. C. Bond.

KICKED POLICE.

John Sewell Fights Hard for Liberty, But Is Subdued.

John Sewell (colored), who had been arrested for carrying a concealed weapon, was tried today in court. He was found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year. He was kicked by the police during the trial.

SHOT AT MAN.

Henry Johnson, Shooter, Was Nabbed, Other Escaped.

Henry Johnson (colored), who had been arrested for carrying a concealed weapon, was tried today in court. He was found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year. He was shot at by the police during the trial.

Memorial Day at Strasburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

STRASBURG, VA., May 25.—The annual memorial exercises and decoration of Confederate graves was held here today. Owing to the very inclement day, the exercises were necessarily curtailed. The address was made by Attorney R. Gray Williams, of Winchester, Va.

Lee Camp to Meet.

Members of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, are called to meet in uniform at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the basement of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, to attend in a body the Hollywood Memorial services.

Pure Blood

Is certain if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine cures those eruptions, pimples and boils that appear at all seasons; cures scrofula sores, salt rheum or eczema; adapts itself equally well to, and also cures, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles; cures rheumatism and catarrh; cures nervous troubles, debility and that tired feeling.

Sarsaparilla—For those who prefer medicine in tablet form, Hood's Sarsaparilla is now put up in chocolate tablets called Sarsaparilla, as well as in the usual liquid form. Sarsaparilla have identical the same curative properties as the liquid form, besides accuracy of dose, convenience, economy, no loss by evaporation, breakage, or leakage. Druggists or promptly by mail. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

GUARANTEED UNDER THE Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906, No. 324.

"Berry's for Clothes."

Elegant Suits for Men

By "elegant" we mean the very best fabrics, the most exclusive patterns and the most skillful tailoring known to the craft.

Suits cut full, modelled along graceful lines, and styled according to the latest fashions of fashion.

Two-Button Coats—Three- or Four-Button Coats; square cut or rounded. Hundreds and hundreds of the most fashionable garments from which to select.

Won't you come in and look? Or write, if you live out of the city.

Suits $12.50 to $32.

O. H. Berry & Co.,

--The Quality Store--

EACH SIDE WILLING TO GAMBLE ON JUROR

Practically Disqualified, but Accepted in the Haywood Case.

SPECTACLE WAS UNUSUAL

Court Accepts Man Who Is Opposed to the Death Penalty.

BOISE, IDAHO, May 25.—The unusual spectacle of accepting a juror opposed to capital punishment except as an extreme measure for the protection of society against war and anarchy, came to-day in the Steunenberg murder trial; and his retention after he had showed that he was qualified a question as to the regularity of the proceedings.

J. E. Tourtellotte, an architect of Boise, is the juror, and his retention seemed to be clearly due to a willingness of both sides to gamble on his views when the jury reaches the supreme solution of the case, the State on the hope that it can meet his ideas as to anarchism, the defense on his opposition to the death penalty.

Counsel for the State said privately after adjournment that the incident could not constitute error in the case and that there existed no means whereby either side could in the future plead it.

It is thought probable that when it comes to swearing the jury, Tourtellotte will refuse the oath and compel the court to excuse him from serving.

Besides Tourtellotte, two other talesmen qualified. They are Finley McKeon and E. F. Crow, a retired farmer. Crow was almost immediately challenged by the defense.

The long strain of getting a jury seems to be showing on the nerves of those who are doing the work, and the court continues to stiffen against the release of talesmen on light and frivolous excuses.

OBITUARY.

Verlie Mason Pence.

Verlie Mason Pence, daughter of Mrs. Walter Pence, died at the home of her mother, No. 2412 1-2 Venable Street, on Friday, 25th inst. She was 25th. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the residence, and the interment was made in the family burying-ground, in the city.

Mrs. Mary Teresa Sullivan.

Mrs. Mary Teresa Sullivan, widow of John M. Sullivan, died at her residence, No. 316 South Fifth Street, in the sixty-fifth year of her age. The funeral will take place from St. Peter's Church on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in Mount Calvary Cemetery.

Romeo P. Sims.

Mr. Romeo P. Sims died at the residence of his brother, No. 1106 North Twenty-third Street, in the thirty-sixth year of his age. The funeral will take place from St. Peter's Church on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in Mount Calvary Cemetery.

Miss Lettie Carter Alley.

Miss Lettie Carter Alley died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. B. H. Alley, No. 1112 West Cary Street, early yesterday morning. The funeral will take place from St. Peter's Church on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in Mount Calvary Cemetery.

Rev. J. T. Tucker.

Rev. J. T. Tucker, formerly of Stafford County, died this week at Front Royal, where he moved some months ago.

Rev. J. T. Tucker.

Rev. J. T. Tucker, formerly of Stafford County, died this week at Front Royal, where he moved some months ago.

Rev. J. T. Tucker.

Rev. J. T. Tucker, formerly of Stafford County, died this week at Front Royal, where he moved some months ago.

Rev. J. T. Tucker.

Rev. J. T. Tucker, formerly of Stafford County, died this week at Front Royal, where he moved some months ago.

Rev. J. T. Tucker.

Rev. J. T. Tucker, formerly of Stafford County, died this week at Front Royal, where he moved some months ago.

Rev. J. T. Tucker.

Rev. J. T. Tucker, formerly of Stafford County, died this week at Front Royal, where he moved some months ago.

THEODORE TILTON DEAD OF PNEUMONIA

Man Who Sued Henry Ward Beecher Passes Away in Paris Home.

UNCONSCIOUS TO THE LAST

Funeral Will Be Held in American Church Some Time on Monday.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

Mr. Tilton's last illness was very brief. On Wednesday he took his customary walk and when he returned, he mounted the five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resided. He then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician was called in and diagnosed his illness as pneumonia. Mr. Tilton's failure to retain food accentuated his weakness, but at no time did he realize the seriousness of his malady.

Only last night he asked for Lord Lytton's "Pausanias" and attempted to read it, but he soon dropped the book and sank into a peaceful sleep, from which practically he never awoke.

Definite arrangements regarding the funeral have yet been made, except that the service will be held Monday in the American Church.

THEODORE TILTON.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city today. He had been unconscious for hours before he passed away.

NERVOUS DEBILITY IMPROVEMENT IN MILK SUPPLY

Mrs. Elmina Seip, Allentown, Pa., 75 years old, was subject to weak spells until she was cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Mrs. Seip has just written the Duffy Malt Whiskey Co. as follows:

"I am 75 years old and was subject to weak spells, and when they would attack me I did not know what to do, so I sent for a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and after I used your medicine a while I felt better, and for the better, I have used it constantly as prescribed, until now I am healthy and strong."

"I have used many medicines, but never saw such a change or felt such a change as I did when I used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I feel better, and for the better, I have used it constantly as prescribed, until now I am healthy and strong."

Thousands of unsolicited letters of gratitude like this of Mrs. Seip are received from grateful patients who are anxious to extol the merits of this great life-saver—Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

MRS. ELMINA SEIP.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is distilled wholly from malted grain by a most expensive method which has never been made public and this private process insures quality and flavor. Its age, softness, palatability and freedom from those injurious substances found in other whiskeys make it acceptable to the most sensitive stomach. It acts as an antitoxin which destroys and drives out all disease germs, quickens the circulation, aids digestion, invigorates the brain, creates new tissue and keeps the body elastic and youthful; thus life is prolonged.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions, and take no other medicine. It is dangerous to fill yourself with drugs; they poison the blood, while Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a family medicine everywhere. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has stood many severe tests by skilled chemists during the past fifty years, and has always been found absolutely pure and to contain great medicinal properties.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles—never in bulk.

Look for the trademark on the "Old Chemist," on the label, make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken and that our guarantee is on every bottle. Price, $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

GEORGIA UNVEILS STATUE OF GORDON

Big Ceremony in Honor of Confederate Soldier in Atlanta.

ATLANTA, GA., May 25.—Thousands of Georgia's citizens, with added hundreds from other sections of the South, gathered to-day at the unveiling ceremonies of the splendid equestrian statue to the memory of General John B. Gordon. Almost within the shadow of the State Capitol, great crowds gathered to hear the orations and see the monument unveiled.

The equestrian statue of General John B. Gordon, cast in copper bronze, which was unveiled to-day, stands on a broad pedestal of Georgia granite at the northwest corner of the State Capitol grounds. Rising twenty-five feet from the base of the pedestal to the top of the head, it occupies a commanding position, which closes the historic part of the city some distance away. The figure of General Gordon is represented seated on his favorite mare, his head bare, the left hand holding the reins, while the right hangs at his side. The pedestal raises the figure of the hero above the heads of the people, and the words of the song by the multitude, mingled with the old "rebel yell" from the throats of veterans who fought under General Gordon and Lee, a feature of the day was the presence of Mrs. Gordon, widow of the Confederate commander, and his two daughters, Mrs. Burton Smith, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Bishop Brown, of Vermont, who unveiled the monument, and Major Frank A. Gordon, a son of General Gordon, and several other relatives. The ceremonies were presided over by Governor John M. Terrell, who introduced the speakers and accepted the monument for the State of Georgia.

History of the Monument.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence came, the orator began his address.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence came, the orator began his address.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence came, the orator began his address.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence came, the orator began his address.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence came, the orator began his address.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence came, the orator began his address.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence came, the orator began his address.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence came, the orator began his address.

After the invocation the history of the Gordon Monument Association was introduced. Then General Evans was introduced.

Following the address of General Evans, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith pulled the cords which freed the monument of its covering, and the cheers of the crowd broke forth. When silence

LABOR AND CAPITAL TO FEAST TOGETHER

Working People and Business Men Will Work for Harmony.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 25.—A labor and capital "love feast" to take place on July 4 is being arranged by a number of labor leaders and business men of Chicago.

The scheme was given an impetus last night when the associated building trades representing thirty-five labor organizations with a membership of more than 4,000 men gave its endorsement to the feast and agreed to